TechChair

Compact, portable and clever – the TechChair is a pocket-sized phone stand that folds out to support your device wherever you work. This innovative stand fits easily into pockets, bags or desk drawers, making it the perfect companion for hybrid workers, students and anyone who needs hands-free phone viewing on the go. Designed to look like a deck chair when in use, it adds character to any desk setup.

Perfect for tech companies, co-working spaces, corporate gifts or any brand looking to provide a memorable, useful item that stays visible throughout the working day.
